

Taiwan Inbound Trade Mission to America's Food & Beverage Show

*Miami, Florida
September 19, 2023*

There is a wide variety of U.S. food products available to Taiwan consumers, and the growing modern retail industry is looking for new imported food products. The small island is nearly 100% dependent on imported food products due to their very small agriculture sector. Growing numbers of fast food and casual dining restaurants are also bolstering demand for imported products. The lessening economic dependence of Taiwan on China may also provide opportunities for U.S. products

Join SUSTA in this exciting opportunity to meet with Taiwanese buyers to discuss your products and opportunities in the Taiwan market!

*Please note that this mission is in conjunction with the South Africa and Brazil Inbound Trade Missions

Participation Fee: $8.33
